

CULTURED

ART

GALLERY PEEPING: SUMMER BLOCKBUSTERS 2019

NEWLY COMMISSIONED WORKS AND NEVER BEFORE SEEN PIECES DON THE WALLS OF NEW YORK'S GALLERIES THIS SUMMER. CULTURED EDITORS SHARE THEIR FAVORITES.

CULTURED MAGAZINE

06.17.2019

JOIRI MINAYA'S
#DOMINICANWOMENGOOGLESEARCH,
2016. INSTALLATION VIEW. COURTESY
OF RAQUEL PÉREZ PUIG.

Resisting Paradise: apexart

Downtown nonprofit Apexart takes their summer exhibition to San Juan, Puerto Rico for a collaboration with the independent art space Pública, curated by Marina Reyes Franco. The Open Call show, “Resisting Paradise,” includes work by Deborah Anzinger, Leasho Johnson and Joiri Minaya—three Caribbean-born artists whose presentations here trace historical representations of the Caribbean to look at ways in which ideas of paradise have perpetuated colonialism.